Justification Letter

Hi, [insert name],

I'm interested in joining SMPS, the Society for Marketing Professional Services. SMPS is the only organization dedicated to serving the needs of marketers and business developers in the design and build industry.

Joining SMPS will benefit not only me but the firm and our team members. After hearing more about the organization and speaking to a few members, I've learned that SMPS has some great tools, resources, and opportunities to help drive firm growth. What I love? They believe that marketers and business developers play a vital role in an A/E/C firm's success. Through my membership, here are a few resources that will help our firm:

- Their foundation publishes research reports and surveys on industry trends, which would help as the industry and business environment evolves.
- They offer in-person and virtual networking, which encourages teaming and partnership and business opportunities.
- They provide member discounts on professional development. Courses have included proposal workshops, AI's role in business development, and other relevant industry-related topics.

It can be challenging to find the right professional association. After learning about SMPS, I know it's the right choice for me and our firm, since they focus on the A/E/C industry. If you'd like to learn more, there's a Who We Are page on their website.

I appreciate your consideration. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Sincerely,
